"He told me he would kill my mother."

"I had to do what he said or he would have posted the pictures on facebook. I was so ashamed."

"No one has shown interest in me like this before, he made me feel special."

"He said he would be sent to prison and I would go into care."

"They make me go to their parties and get drunk and then they do stuff with me."

"The men give me drugs alcohol and money. I need them to help me get through the day."

"He said to me that he loved me and that I should do things for him and if I didn't he'd start shouting at me."

"He's like a dad to me and has helped me a lot. He makes me feel great."

"I had no one to talk to. Me and my parents weren't getting on and I had no friends I could trust."

"She has been making me have sex with her and bringing me things in return."

"Getting attention from him was nice."

"I feel embarrassed taking pictures of myself and sending them. But it's worth it because he says he loves me. I didn't think anyone would ever love me because of my disability."

"She is there for me when I want to talk to someone about all the bullying at school. She makes me feel safe. She is really nice and I trust her. She wouldn't hurt me!"

"It's my fault I agreed to meet him."

"He was nice to me, gave me money and presents and stuff."

"They think he is grooming me but we are in love. He doesn't hurt me. - it's his mates - I don't think anyone understands."

"It doesn't matter what he does. He has promised never to tell my family and always gives me what I want. I know he loves me really."

"When I was younger I went on a website for gay men. I met a man from the website and did things I shouldn't do. Now I have to carry on or he will not be my friend anymore and won't keep it a secret."

"I have self-harmed, because I hate myself and I just feel numb and deserve the pain."
