

I hope mum
doesn't find out

He thanked me
for a great night
and sent me
photos of him
lying on the bed

Starting in a new school in
year 10 has been really hard
for me

I think he respects me he
just kissed me
goodnight

Now we talk
online every night and he
even helps me
with my
homework

He texted me to ask me to add
him as a friend
on a social network site

On the way
home he bought
some Vodka and encouraged me
to share it

When I got home he persuaded me to go online and we talked for ages

He has invited me around to his house this weekend

On Friday night
I went to the
cinema with him
- just the two of us again. He even paid for me

A boy who lives
near me is in Year 13 at the
same school

Perhaps he likes me? I hope so
he is really nice

He is always saying nice
things about me and how great I

No-one has shown interest in
me like this before. He makes me feel
special

It's our secret.
I haven't told
anyone

He's been friendly, walked
home with me
and even asked
to swap mobile
phone numbers

It will be just me and him, with
lots of alcohol,
having a
romantic evening
together

There is no one to talk to and I
haven't got any
friends to trust

He asked me to send him similar pictures of myself -so I did
