

Quiz – Law and Penalties

Read the eight statements below.

Decide if each statement is TRUE or FALSE and tick the correct box.

- | | | |
|---|----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1. Sharing drugs including joints or spliffs can be considered in law as supplying drugs. | TRUE
<input type="checkbox"/> | FALSE
<input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2. You cannot be charged and sent to court for your first drugs offence. | TRUE
<input type="checkbox"/> | FALSE
<input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3. Growing cannabis plants can lead to a prison sentence of fourteen years and / or a fine. | TRUE
<input type="checkbox"/> | FALSE
<input type="checkbox"/> |
| 4. A GP can prescribe cannabis as a medicine in Great Britain. | TRUE
<input type="checkbox"/> | FALSE
<input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5. If you are convicted of a drug offence you are likely to be barred from entry into other countries | TRUE
<input type="checkbox"/> | FALSE
<input type="checkbox"/> |
| 6. Cannabis has been legalised in this country. | TRUE
<input type="checkbox"/> | FALSE
<input type="checkbox"/> |
| 7. Looking after drugs for a friend is illegal. | TRUE
<input type="checkbox"/> | FALSE
<input type="checkbox"/> |
| 8. Supplying ecstasy could lead to a prison sentence of life and an unlimited fine. | TRUE
<input type="checkbox"/> | FALSE
<input type="checkbox"/> |