Ben

Ben is 17 years old. He is inclined to be lazy and lacks ambition. His best friend is Mike. However, he is slightly in awe of Mike, who he sees as a talented and popular person.

Ben tends to be gullible and easily taken in by other people. He believes that all young people are having sex and he is the only person not benefiting from such a relationship.

He is controlling with females and lacks the ability to develop a mutually respectful relationship. When he doesn't get his own way or gain control he is inclined to lose his temper.

Chloe

Chloe is 17 years old. She lives with her Mum who is a single parent. Her father recently died and they have moved to a new area to start afresh. Chloe doesn't have a very close relationship with her mother and she feels embarrassed and unable to discuss sexual issues with her.

Chloe is quite shy and reserved, and comes across as nervous and a bit on edge as a new member of the school. She wants to be liked and to fit in with the group and in particular looks up to Rosie as she appears to be everything Chloe wants to be. Her friends often discuss sex but Chloe is reluctant to talk about it even with them.

Rosie

Rosie is 17 years old. She lives with her Mum and Dad who are away on holiday. They have lived in the area since Rosie was born. They are a wealthy family and Rosie has everything a teenager would wish. Rosie is confident and enjoys socialising with her friends. She is a popular member of the school year group. She is liked and looked up to by Chloe and Bethan. Rosie is the lead vocalist in a rock band with Ben and Mike. Rosie is in love with Mike and they have been going out together for nearly 18 months. Their relationship is based on respect and has grown through mutual agreement. They trust one another and see each other as equal in their relationship.
